

CITY OF NORTH ADAMS, MASSACHUSETTS

Notice of Police Department Hiring Examination

The City of North Adams will conduct an employment examination for entry level police officers on Saturday, March 9, 2019. This examination and hiring process is not covered under the Massachusetts Civil Service system.

Located in the northwest corner of the Commonwealth, North Adams is the smallest city in Massachusetts, and one of two cities in Berkshire County. The city is home to Massachusetts College of Liberal Arts (MCLA), a campus of the Massachusetts state university system and a top 10 public liberal arts college, as well as to the Massachusetts Museum of Contemporary Art (MASS MoCA), the largest contemporary art center in the United States. North Adams continues to experience an economic resurgence in recent years fueled by the emergence of a robust manufacturing cluster and the creative economy.

The North Adams Police Department seeks to recruit qualified candidates who demonstrate an understanding of criminal justice practices in investigation, enforcement, and response; a dedication to community policing; and a commitment to intercultural competency.

EXAMINATION DETAILS

Location: Drury High School, 1130 South Church Street, North Adams, MA 01247

Time: 8:30 a.m.; registration and check in begins promptly at 7:30

Fee: $80

To register or for more information visit: <https://www.publicsafetyllc.com/product/n-adams-ma-police-entrance-examination>

Lateral transfers also will be considered, and hiring preference will be extended to qualified veterans and candidates with previous police experience.

Officers within the North Adams Police Department are eligible for benefits and incentives including vacation and sick time; health insurance; education incentives; and shift differentials.

The City of North Adams, Massachusetts, is an affirmative action, equal opportunity employer.